LISTA drawer dividers provide precise organization for tools, hardware, and supplies inside our modular cabinets. Whether using tray dividers for compartmentalized storage or full LISTA cabinet dividers to separate larger items, these accessories enhance efficiency and prevent shifting during use. We also have mesh drawer liners that add another layer of protection, securing tools in place while allowing air circulation to prevent moisture buildup. Whether for manufacturing, automotive, or industrial environments, LISTA drawer dividers, partitions, and mesh liners help you create a system that keeps everything within reach and properly sorted. Slotted Grooved Trays, Dividers, and Plastic Boxes for Small Components For high-density storage of small parts, LISTA's slotted grooved trays and tray dividers offer an efficient way to separate and organize components. On the same note, plastic storage boxes fit seamlessly into LISTA cabinets, providing clear visibility of stored items while keeping them secure. These stackable and modular solutions work in any professional setting where precision organization is essential. Designed for flexibility, LISTA dividers and trays can be adjusted or rearranged as storage needs evolve. Stationary and Adjustable Riser Shelf Kits for Workbenches and Cabinets In case you need to expand your storage capacity without replacing your existing storage system, LISTA riser shelf kits are designed to increase vertical space in LISTA cabinets and workstations. Available in adjustable and stationary configurations, these shelves provide additional storage for frequently used tools and equipment. Featuring rugged construction and a professional fit, LISTA riser shelves help streamline workflows by keeping essential items within arm's reach. Ideal for workshops, maintenance areas, and production floors, these add-ons enhance workstation functionality without compromising durability. Full Accessory System Kits For a complete storage solution, LISTA full accessory system kits integrate shelves, bins, dividers, and other modular components into a streamlined organization system. These kits are designed to maximize the capacity of LISTA cabinets, providing flexible configurations that adapt to changing storage needs. With a modular design and precision fit, LISTA accessory kits allow for easy customization and seamless integration with existing storage setups. Whether you need to create dedicated compartments for tools and parts or optimize workflow efficiency, these systems provide a durable, high-performance solution for any industrial workspace.
