

I'm not a bot

You may remove the relative pronoun and reduce your sentence in certain conditions. The man who wants to talk to you is waiting for you. The man wanting to talk to you is waiting for you. 1. In defining clauses, we can omit the relative pronoun in the position of object. The boy who / whom / that you don't like much wants to talk to you. The boy you don't like much wants to talk to you. Note: In non-defining sentences you neither omit the relative pronoun nor use "that". My mother, who / whom that you met yesterday, wants to talk to you. My mother you met yesterday... 2. We can use participles when reducing the sentence. a) Present Participle "V-ing" (simultaneous) We stood on the bridge which connects the two halves of the city. We stood on the bridge connecting the two halves of the city. (Present Participle) b) Past Participle "V3 or being V3" (passive simultaneous) The boy who was attacked by a dog was taken to hospital. The boy attacked by a dog was taken to hospital. (Past Participle) c) Perfect Participle "having V3" (active-explaining sth. happened before the others) Jenna, who has lived in Florida for 20 years, has gone through several hurricanes. Jenna, having lived in Florida for 20 years, has gone through several hurricanes. (Perfect Participle) d) Perfect Passive Participle "having been V3" (passive-explaining sth happened before the others) Usain Bolt, who had been disqualified from the mens 100m final after a false start, made no such mistake in the 200m. Usain Bolt, having been disqualified from the mens 100m final after a false start, made no such mistake in the 200m. (Perfect passive participle) e) Having been disqualified from the mens 100m final after a false start, Usain Bolt made no such mistake in the 200m. (Perfect passive participle) 3. If "To be" verb is used after a relative pronoun we can omit "Relative Pronoun + To be". The car which is parked next to mine is very expensive. The car parked next to mine is very expensive. Hamlet, which was written by Shakespeare sometime in the early 1600s, is among the classics. Hamlet, written by Shakespeare sometime in the early 1600s, is among the classics. 4. When the verb have meaning possession, we can omit relative pronoun and have and use with (+) or without (-). Students who have enough math and English skills will be admitted. Students with enough math and English skills will be admitted. People who don't have their ID cards can not get in. People without their ID cards can not get in. 5. We can use infinitive to in the cases below. 1. The only...to2. Superlative...to3. The first, last, second, next...toJohn is the only person who understands me. John is the only person to understand me. Tom is the most handsome boy who came to this school. Tom is the most handsome boy to come to this school. Jack is the first student who has handed in the exam. Jack is the first person to have handed in the exam. See more on relative clauses Grammar Bank Video Exercises (New!) 0 ratings 50% found this document useful (0 votes) 141 views The document contains 20 exercises with multiple choice questions testing the use of reduced relative clauses in English. Each question has a blank that must be filled in with the appropriate Save Save Reduced Relative Clause For Later 0% found this document useful, undefined Here's a worksheet on reduced relative clauses for you to check your students on reduced relative clauses. In the worksheet, students first need to decide whether the relative clause can be reduced or not, then make the necessary changes in the sentence to make it shorter. Students usually confuse the omission of relative pronouns with reduced clauses. It might be a good idea to elicit or teach the difference between them before handing out this worksheet. The QR code answer key and equally divided A&B worksheets are added. Index of contents Relative clauses 1 Relative clauses 2 Worksheets - handouts Home Content Tag The man making a sandwich is Jon. Attack on Titan Race Game (Shingekinokyojin) Grammar/Review Race Game that can be used for any grade level. Race to the finish line before the Titan catches you! If you're a titan, try to eat other titans! Relative Clause Mashup Short writing/drawing activity to practice relative clause. Megamind!!! A speaking and writing activity based off of Unit 5 NH3's grammar. Tetris An activity based on the grammar of NH3 P. 73 Reduced Relative Clause? Sure, let's do it!!!! This is a speaking activity for you to practice this grammar in a natural way. Give your students a good opportunity to speak real English, instead of repeating ridiculous phrases! Textbook Search! (Reduced Relative Clauses) A textbook picture search highly specific to New Horizon 3, practicing Key Sentence 13: We spoke to an officer passing by "Where's Wally?" This is a "Where's Wally?" style activity for JHS New Horizons 3 Unit 4 p.62 - Reduced Relative Clause Find the person ~ing NH3U4 Students make quizzes for each other (using reduced relative clauses) to find different people in their textbooks! This is a game we played to practice grammar! This is a matching pairs card game for JHS New Horizons 3 Unit 5 p.73 - sentences that modify nouns. Last Man Standing Speaking activity for practicing reduced relative clause (noun + past participle) Textbook Picture Search! (One World 3) Practice the reduced relative clause by searching through the One World 3 textbook. G3- JHS - Here We Go textbook - Kahoots by units Kahoot quizzes by units for JHS 3rd graders. I Spy! A group activity based around the I Spy books, or other similar material. Hunt for the ~ing 1 & 2 (9) Children look for ing related pictures in their textbook! JHS Unit 4 Review (Pokmon Knowledge Quest) Review Unit 4 using fun Pokmon graphics to get students excited! Murder Mystery Students read hints to figure out who the killer is. (reading, comprehension, critical thinking, teamwork) Lesson Review Jeopardy: JHS 3 One World Lesson 3-4 Jeopardy Game Show powerpoint file specifically for JHS 3 nensei One World, Lesson 3-4 Unit Review Reduced Relative Clause, Relative Pronouns The boy sleeping on his desk is (UPDATE) Students try to identify a class full of slackers by listening or reading descriptions Thanksgiving Dinner Party A logic puzzle featuring family members doing different things at the dinner table during Thanksgiving. Post Modification Jeopardy (Autumn Themed) An Autumn themed game of Jeopardy to review various types of post-modification Fall for English 'Race and Speak' A Race and Speak type game along with follow up writing Pusheen's (PowerPoint) Halloween Adventure! A cute PowerPoint adventure featuring Pusheen the Cat. My Memorable Experience A writing activity for 3rd graders where they pick a card and share their memorable experience about it. The Halloween Scene A Halloween-style Busy Scene poster using the Relative Pronoun Who That Which Review Board Game A simple review for 3rd graders where they answer questions on a board game Conan Clues - Participle Detective Worksheet Students act as Conan and investigate a crime scene. With clues such as 'a ringing phone' and 'a locked door', the students will be practicing participles as they crack the case! Christmas in the Park A flexible busy scene poster. Play karuta, use with a worksheet, etc. Robot Battles and Robot Racers A quiz game and a pair of writing games for reduced relative pronouns Reduced Relative Clause Questions & Ideas Prompts for questions and ideas related to the reduced relative clause Who made this? Link to Drive below A stylish quiz to practice reduced relative clauses Relative Pronouns Art 42 illustrations of all forms of relative pronouns Soccer Speaking And Writing Games A pair speaking game and a writing group game Powerpoint: The girl playing tennis is Yuka Practicing reduced relative clauses Reduced relative clause worksheet A simple worksheet for practicing the reduced relative clause. Pictures with Santa A logic puzzle based on the "Day at the Zoo" activity, useful for practicing contact clauses. Textbook Treasure Hunt (Sunshine 3) Textbook treasure hunt activity to review grammar and content from Sunshine 3, Programs 1 through 7. Forest Jeopardy Quiz Game A topic based quiz game inspired by the TV program Jeopardy Man Wrestling a Shark A picture to use for making reduced relative clause questions/sentences (ex. Where is the man wrestling a shark?) Uno Cards Who doesn't love card games? Explain the Culture Use either as a poster for 'say the word' or as cards for 'taboo' and 'karuta' Sign in or create an account to leave a comment.

Reduced relative clauses test pdf. Reduced relative clause exercises pdf. Relative and non relative clauses exercises. Reduced relative clauses exercises pdf with answers. Reduced relative clause pdf.